Name:_____ Room #: _____

Ellis Island Virtual Field Trip Reflection

Based on everything you learned about the immigrants who came to this country, reflect on what life was like as they passed through the many rooms of Ellis Island. Think about Annie's experience in the story we read and your own research about the island. What do you think it would be like to be one of the thousands of immigrants trying to enter this country and start a new life?